525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THIS BRINGS THE LINE TO THE EASTERN BASE of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further to Evans Pass the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and, as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
are offered for the present at 95 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction and Value of Bonds may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

The Tribulations of the Democracy

A SPLIT AMONG THE "FAITHFUL" IN OHIO—MAN DRAFT FROM VALLANDIGHAM

The Dayton Ledger (Vallandigham's organ) has the following article in its issue of Jan. 29th:

Colonel Barnabas Burns has been beaten for Representative in Congress, from the Eighth District by a majority of ...9 a Republican gain since October of '62.

This is the first gun of the Presidential campaign of 1868, and indicates a Republican majority next fall, in Ohio, of from twelve to twenty thousand. Deploring the causes which arrested the tide of Democratic victory in this State, and trusting that the day may come some time when politicians will learn that the people will have their own way somehow or other, in this country, and that they demand strong and honest and earnest men and measures, and that the true secret of political success is true strategem and not "fighting shy," commonly called "policy," we shall labor zealously to avert the calamity. The result in the Eighth District has, too, a most important bearing on the Presidential nomination in the Democratic party.

In the above several aspects it is suggestive and we propose to comment upon it accordingly, in plain but well considered terms. After the disastrous "policy" defeat of 1866, a campaign in which the exclusion of Vallandigham was to be the sure pledge of victory—we go no further back at present—the true men of the Ohio Democracy determined to start afresh on the old Democratic line, and began by holding the State Convention on the time honored Eighth of January. The proposition met with bitter hostility from the "policy" men of that day, and they came to Columbus on the 5th of November, 1866, and into the conference, fully organized and determined to defeat it. Yet after a long and exciting debate, one by one they retired, leaving the field to the sound men of the party, only one vote being cast against the Eighth, and that by a gentleman who is now a delegate at large to the Presidential Convention.

The State Convention met on the 8th of January, 1867, perhaps the soundest convention that ever met in Ohio, out of the three hundred and odd "State sovereignty" or "Corry men," so called, sixty seven were members of it. Mr Corry was himself a delegate from Hamilton county, and Vallandigham, the "odious," was Chairman of the committee on resolutions. Of "Cary men" there were none, that animal being as yet only "in posse," as the lawyers say, and very few of those who composed the recent State Convention were present. Many believed the Democratic party to be "dead," and were not willing to contribute to the expense of its funeral, nor to attend it, nor even to partake of the funeral baked meats. One of them, now also a delegate at large, acted, no doubt, upon his declaration, made on the 7th of August, 1861, during the war, that "it was no time to be holding Democratic conventions." But there were many who thought that the party was not dead, but only slept, that cowardice and the want of energy in the "leaders," so called, had affected it with a politic syncope of the heart, and all that it needy for vitality and victory was the energizing influence of the honesty and courage of the Democratic masses, and accordingly upon principle, to a larger extent than ever before, if indeed, not fully, the Democratic party went into the campaign. The organization and committees were in the hands of those who then made a boast that they were among the "sound men" of the party, and efficient work was done accordingly. The Democratic masses were stirred up, and the "odious" Vallandigham went everywhere with immense audiences, largely Republican, to greet him, and "injured the party" by contributing his share to the large Democratic gains wherever he went, and well understood by all to be a candidate for the United States Senate. After a most enthusiastic, straight haired, straight forward, honorable, "square toed" fight, the Republican majority in the "policy" year 1866, of 42,000, was reduced to 2,300 on Governor, and a Democratic Legislature elected.

It was emphatically a victory of the Democratic masses, because the hearts of the people were in it. But no sooner was the election over, than for a particular purpose, the cry went forth from a certain class of men all over the State, "We must now look to 'policy;' we must be careful to consult the prejudices of the Republicans and 'Conservatives;' we must not drive off the new converts, we need more Republican votes; the election of Vallandigham as Senator will 'injure the party,' we must take some less obnoxious man." Through the machinery of the State Central and Executive Committees the work was accordingly done. The Democratic members of the Legislature were industriously stuffed with the idea of "policy," and that the entire success of the Democracy in Ohio and elsewhere, in 1868, depended on the defeat of that "pestiferous" fellow Vallandigham. The Convention of the 8th of January, 1868, was attended by men, some of whom never before met in a Democratic Convention, and by others who had been absent during the twelve years of Democratic defeat, but who now turned up like vultures and cormorants hovering over the spoils. At this Convention, through the basest of treachery, the entire control of the Democratic organization was handed over bodily, upon certain conditions, relating to certain nominations for high places, to the men who, in 1863, in the great battle for free speech, free press and free ballot, refused to support the Democratic nomination for Governor that year. From President of the Convention down to minor officers and chairmen of committees, nearly every man who figured conspicuously in that body, was one apparently selected because he had either refused to support the Democratic ticket in 1863, or had been an avowed member of the Republican party during the war. The Democratic party of Ohio was thus, for certain considerations, and on condition of "amnesty" to certain high contracting "peace men" delivered over to the control of those who had forsaken or betrayed us during the ordeal of the war. A platform, too, emasculated of every distinctive old fashioned Democratic principle, as distinguished from mere line of policy, and, for the first time, containing a quasi endorsement of the late civil war as one waged "in defense of the Union" (a well known "public falsehood") was reported by one of the recusants of 1863 and adopted. And two days after the Convention, Colonel Barnabas Burns was nominated for Representative in Congress for the Eighth District. He, too, had refused to support the nominee for Governor in 1863, and, more than that, had attempted to organize a "bolting" State Convention at Columbus on the 4th of September of that year, to nominate a Democratic candidate in opposition to Mr. Vallandigham for Governor. He was the very "man for the times."

On the 13th of January 1868, Mr. Vallandigham was defeated in the Democratic caucus for Senator, by means alluded to above, but not necessary further just now to expose.

Immediately afterward, Mr. Jewett, Colonel McCook, Mr. Rex and others, who like Colonel Burns, had refused to support the Democratic nominee for Governor in 1863 along with Senator Thurman were posted to "stump" the district, and they did it, the Senator doing active service. Money, too, was sent by aspirants to high places, and their friends, to aid and comfort one of the "parties of the second part." The result of all this was the usual fruit of "policy" at the sacrifice of principle and the men who sustain principle—a great Republican victory, and Republican gain of 82 over an honest "anti-policy" people's campaign in October last.

And now a question or two. How many votes would Vallandigham's election to the Senate have "driven off" from the Democratic party in the Eighth District? How many Republican votes did Thurman's election "drive in" to the Democratic party? What has "policy" done for us again? And is the Presidential election to be sacrificed to the same insane clamor ... arrangement? Are politicians ... rule hereafter in Ohio? Is the project ... districting the State for Congressional purposes to be defeated and five or six Democratic Representatives in Congress to be lost? ... bility and contrary ... the future ... principle? One ... political offences like these in the moral and ... world never fail to bring with them ... just penalty, sometimes ... later. The ... of ... grind at intervals, ... fast ... ... hand ... now and then sudden and springing; while the winged daughter of Oceanus and Nyx, riding up on her stag, javelin in hand, never leaves long unbalanced the scale of human wrong.

Swinging Around the Circle

From the Chicago Tribune.

The Grant and Johnson correspondence has an important significance. It exhibits

1. The President of the United States engaged in a controversy on a question of veracity, with the General of the Army, in which controversy he has a falsehood fastened upon him. Considering the rank of the President as the Chief Executive of the American Union, his having a controversy official or personal with a subordinate officer, is sufficiently humiliating, without the additional disgrace which attaches to him from the merits of the case.

2. It exhibits the President of the United States summoning his Cabinet officers to be present at an interview between himself and a subordinate and then requiring them to testify as witnesses upon a question of veracity between himself and that subordinate.

3. It exhibits Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, seeking the reporters of the various newspapers and directing them to publish statements upon his authority impeaching the personal, official and political character of a subordinate officer and then having those statements when repeated personally, branded as untruthful by the officer accused.

4. It exhibits Andrew Johnson appointing the General of the Army to the office of Secretary of War, for the purpose of destroying him in the confidence and esteem of the country. It demonstrates that Johnson made the appointment and then used his official position to compel Grant to resist the execution of the law—all for the purpose of bringing the General into conflict with Congress and the loyal sentiment of the country.

5. Having failed to bully Grant into this extraordinary and revolting position the correspondence shows a deliberate purpose to represent Grant as having falsely promised to adopt that course, and with having falsely denied that he had done so.

A more miserable exhibition of official turpitude and littleness is not to be found in the history of the United States. The attempt to destroy Grant is so patent, so malicious and disreputable, that it is without precedent in the conduct of political campaigns. The attempt of a candidate for the Presidency to use his official position to involve a possible political rival in official violation of law and personal dishonor, and, failing in that attempt, to charge him with conduct discreditable to him as a soldier and a citizen, is, as we have said, without precedent. Let Andrew Johnson have the distinction of being the one referred to in the following passages of Grant's letter:

"SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 31st ult., in answer to mine of the 28th ult. After a careful reading and comparison of the article over the initials "J. R. S." in the New York World of the 27th ult., purporting to be based upon your statement, and seven of the members of the Cabinet therein named, I find it only to be a reiteration, only somewhat more in detail, of the many and gross misrepresentations contained in these articles, and which my statement of facts, set forth in my letter of the 24th ult., was intended to correct, and herein I reassert the correctness of my statements in that letter, anything in yours to the contrary notwithstanding. * * *

"And now, Mr. President, when my honor as a soldier and integrity as a man have been so violently assailed, pardon me for saying I can but regard this whole matter, from beginning to end, as an attempt to involve me in a resistance of law, for which you hesitate to assume the responsibility, in order to destroy my character before the country. I am, in a measure, confirmed in this conclusion by your recent orders directing me to disobey orders from the Secretary of War, my superior and your subordinate."

These two paragraphs will go down to history, as truthfully explaining and describing the turpitude of the President, and the unworthy motives of his conduct. After the weeks of calumny and misrepresentation of Grant's part in this affair, the country will be gratified with the publication of the official correspondence, showing, as it does, that the conqueror of the rebellion has not been trapped by Andrew Johnson.

A year ago or more Johnson went swinging around the circle with General Grant for the purpose of fastening upon the latter some part of the public odium attaching to himself. He did not succeed so fully as he expected, but he kept on swinging. The main purpose of his existence during all the intervening time has been to put some discredit upon the General as a supporter and endorser of his policy. On the principle that a man cannot touch pitch without defilement, he has kept Grant handling tar all the time. If his last exploit in this line has not satisfied him that the thing does not pay, he must be an incurable idiot.

"NOVEL" SHOOTING CASE.—A shooting case recently occurred at Jefferson, Marion county, the causes and circumstances of which, with the consequences thereof, are thus related by the Salem Record:

Jellison, who made the assault on Miss Paulina Holt, at Jefferson, has secured quite a notoriety for his bad shooting, and not much satisfaction for his jealousy. It seems that two young ladies, with a gentleman, were having a walk and didn't care for his company. They were strolling one pleasant moonlight evening, through the woods beside the Santiam waters, and Mr. J., feeling the green eyed monster busy at his heart strings, took aim—very poor aim, too—at the whole crowd, and blazed away with a Colt's battery, firing three shots at the retreating fair ones. There was no proof positive that he fired at them with intent to massacre them or that the pistol was loaded with ball. Very likely the smart young gentleman fired towards them with the intention to scare them terribly—at least he succeeded in so doing, and has been in turn very considerably stirred up by the grand jury and circuit court, which can't see the joke. Judge Boise yesterday sent him up for the full extent of the law—one year in the county jail and $100 fine and costs. As the costs foot up about $2 0 and he has no money, he will have to work the fine and costs out in the county jail at $2 a day. The Judge talked to him quite plainly when he sentenced him, and was the more severe because he had made repeated and terrible threats and even pointed his gun at the young lady threatening death before the final scare. He no doubt owes it to Mr. Cartwright, his counsel, that he did not fetch up in the penitentiary.

A "long lost brother" romance has just occurred in Cleveland. The chap with the strawberry mark on his left arm was stolen from a Mormon emigrant party, more than twenty years ago by the Indians. "Democratic" Misrepresentation

It is a convincing proof of the degradation of "Democracy" that it makes no attempt to tell the truth. In the face of light and knowledge it misrepresents, it prevaricates, it falsifies,—though perfectly conscious that all intelligent persons are aware of its duplicity and fully cognizant of its mendacity. An illustration of this propensity is seen as conspicuously in the management of the Oregon Herald as anywhere else. For instance, that paper, in assailing Congress for its course toward the South, tells its readers that "it is not denied that the organization of the State governments (of the South) was maintained intact throughout the war, and that they were the same governments after the war that they were before the war. This fact has been repeatedly [illegible] by every department of the General Government." Could unblushing falsehood put a bolder front than this? Ever since the [illegible] of reconstruction first came up at a time long prior to the close of the war, Congress and the Executive, (the Judiciary have had nothing to do with a question so purely political) have invariably held that by the acts of secession, followed up by armed rebellion, the rebel [illegible] were deprived of all civil government. [illegible] that the State governments were not [illegible] intact throughout the war," but that they were destroyed by the rebellion, has always been adhered to since the first step was [illegible] toward reconstruction. The proof of this is ample, and it is impossible to gainsay it. On this principle rests all that has been done to re[illegible] the Union. In January, 1864, a bill was [illegible] in the House of Representatives "to [illegible] to certain States whose governments have been usurped or overthrown, a republican [illegible] government." In July following, this [illegible] both Houses. It provided for a return [illegible] States to their relations with the Government of the Union on substantially the same [illegible] which are embodied in the fourteenth [illegible] to the Constitution, which was ratified [illegible] loyal States in 1866. Congress adjourned within an hour after passing the bill. [illegible] the circumstances President Lincoln did [illegible], because, as he said in a proclamation [illegible] his reasons for not officially approving [illegible] was "unprepared by a formal approval of [illegible] bill to be inflexibly committed to any single [illegible] restoration." "Nevertheless," said he, "[illegible] fully satisfied with the system for restoration contained in the bill, as one [illegible] for the loyal people of any [illegible], and be promised to "proceed so [illegible] the bill" so soon "as military resistance [illegible]." It will be observed that both Con[illegible] the P[illegible] held that the State governments had been overthrown by the rebellion. [illegible] that the President recognized [illegible] of Congress to prescribe conditions of [illegible] which his successor has denied. [illegible] Congress, President Lincoln and [illegible] took this view and acted on this [illegible] proceeded on another idea. [illegible] in his speech in the House, opposed [illegible] assumed that the rebel States [illegible] act of secession, "lost their corporate [illegible]." His doctrine was that the seceding [illegible] their ordinances of rati[illegible] the band of union, broken the [illegible]." They had "annulled their [illegible]," they had withdrawn from the Un[illegible] constitutions had not been abrogated. [illegible] but a single law, repealed it by [illegible] convention, leaving their [illegible] laws, their political and social [illegible]." This was the pure [illegible] the view held by the [illegible] and the [illegible]. But Congress never took this [illegible] to act on this theory. [illegible] that the very same doctrine [illegible] is now put forth [illegible] and that, though it was repudiated [illegible] the beginning, that paper [illegible] that that body [illegible] "the fact has been repeatedly [illegible] of the Government [illegible] State governments were maintained [illegible] the war!"

[illegible] has, for more than two [illegible] and endorsing the reconstruction [illegible] of President Johnson. That policy [illegible] with a proclamation declaring [illegible] in its revolutionary progress, [illegible] the people of [illegible] States of all [illegible]." Does it now lie in the mouths [illegible] to declare that the governments [illegible] were "maintained intact [illegible] the war?" Is it manly and becoming to turn against him whom they have [illegible] support, and to proclaim their own [illegible]? The Democratic [illegible] committed as it can be to the [illegible] with which Johnson started out, viz: [illegible] a State governments were destroyed by the rebellion. Yet a paper which assumes the rank of the leading organ of that [illegible] now stultifies itself by declaring [illegible] Johnson's policy which [illegible] approved, has its sole [illegible] on the theory which this organ con[illegible] [illegible] Johnson and Congress fully [illegible] the rebel States were deprived of civil [illegible] by the war. The difference between [illegible] well stated in Senator Williams' late [illegible] as follows: "President Johnson and his [illegible] that it was the exclusive right of the [illegible] of the United States to organ[illegible] governments in those insurrectionary [illegible], and that Congress had no right to say or [illegible] in the matter. Congress [illegible] hand, claims that by the Constitution [illegible] governments it is its [illegible] act, and therefore belongs to [illegible]. This is the issue between the executive and the legislative departments of the nation, and out of that issue has grown this great controversy, with all its unhappy consequences."

The Herald inquires "If the right of Congress to [illegible] States and dictate the government thereof is once assented to, where will [illegible] end but in consolidation and the [illegible] of all municipal rights?" Is it [illegible] danger for Congress to do this than for the President to do it? Johnson did just this thing, and the Democratic party approved his act. Where, then, is the ground for their accusation against Congress? Can the Executive exercise powers in the matter of "dictating State governments" which Congress cannot? Such a position is an insult to common intelligence. It is humiliating to be compelled to notice such absurdities and falsehoods as we have refuted, but as the paper which deals in them is the organ of a party, and as that party allows it to be recognized as such, we cannot, in all cases, let its misrepresentations go unnoticed and unexposed.

A [illegible] internal war is raging among the Ohio [illegible]. Pendleton seeks the Presidential [illegible], and after availing himself of the labors of Vallandigham and the friends of that illustrious martyr, in electing a Democratic Legislature in Ohio, gives the Senatorship to Thurman and repays Clement with a sneer. The result is war in the very bowels of the Ohio Democracy. We publish a savage article from the Dayton Ledger, in which the sacrifice of brains, courage and principle, represented by Vallandigham, in behalf of the opposite things, represented by Pendleton, is commented on with becoming indignation.

Free Speech Abolished.

The proofs are numerous throughout the country that free speech is abolished by the "Congressional despotism." The New York Day Book and Brick Pomeroy's paper are some of them,—not to mention the "Lost Cause" organs in Oregon. There is proof also of the same tyrannous destruction of free speech in Kentucky. But in that State the vestal fire of pure "Democracy" is fed by the Sentinel of the Border, published at Louisville. There the Democratic Samson has not been quite shorn of its strength by the greenback Delilah nor has its purity been debauched by following military candidates. The Border Sentinel calls the greenbacks with which the Pendleton Copperheads propose to clothe themselves, "Lincoln skins." It says:

The farmer in the Northwest is now selling his corn for from 60 to 70 cents per bushel for "Lincoln skins," worth about 70 cents on the dollar. In Democratic times he got as much or more and received gold. This is what he pays for the privilege of being what the Yankee tories of George the Third were—"loil!"

And it treated in this scornful manner the proposition to nominate General Hancock, after it had treated in the same style the talk about making General Sherman the Democratic candidate:

The name of this new light, which, for a fortnight, shown with such brilliancy, is Hancock. On the mere mention of it, Democratic statesmen, with Presidential aspirations, everywhere crowled into their holes and hid in trembling silence. Pendleton burrowed into the earth, Seymour climbed up a tree, Vallandigham got down into a dry well, Pierce fainted, Fillmore locked himself in his closet, Voorhees shook till his teeth dropped out, and Dan. Rice fled the ring. They were nowhere. Hancock, the satrap, was everywhere. His name appeared each morning in the telegraph columns of the whole press in tremendous letters. His stock was up, and the military fever was high. We saw a seedy Democrat rubbing his hands with great glee one morning.

"What's the matter?" asked we.

"What's the matter? Well, a good deal. We've got the man now—Hancock."

"For what?"

"Why, for President! Haven't you read the papers? Don't you see!"

"Oh, yes! Hancock—the man at New Orleans? Hancock, the satrap! The man who hanged poor Mrs. Surratt!"

"Mrs. Sur— ho, yes! ahem! that is — but you see we must beat Grant!"

And so it goes. These policy Democrats are the craziest fellows in the land. They would run the Devil if he could get a vote from Plutonians, never calculating the number he would lose on this side!

But, like all the military material that has been brought out from time to time, Hancock is disappearing from public view. He is obscured by the ghost of a murdered woman!

The hangman of Mrs. Surratt won't do for the candidate of Democrats any more than the Bummer Chief will do!

Sacred Rights.

The Chicago Tribune justly observes that one of the standard marks of pure "Democracy" is the exaltation by the individual spouter or newspaper given to the "rights" of the ex-rebels. Take any Democratic speech, made anywhere, in Portland or New Orleans, or any Democratic paper printed anywhere—in Oregon, Chicago or Charleston—and it will be found that the only persons who are recognized as oppressed or suffering, or who have sustained losses by the war, or who are taxed or distressed, are the ex-rebels of the Southern States. The rights of these people to civil and political equality; the moral, social and political prerogatives of the rebel soldiers and privateers; the superiority of the claim of any rebel who lost his property during the war, to that of any person who loaned money to the Government when it needed it, are themes of which the Democracy never weary, and upon which they are ever enthusiastic. The right of a white man in Carolina to vote for two adults beside himself is a claim which Northern Copperheads insist shall never be surrendered. The laboring men of the North have each one vote. The [illegible] class in the Southern States have none. There has always been a patrician caste which has done all the voting and taken charge of political affairs generally. The Democrats of the North have been taught that these patricians are superior to all other Americans; that the right to vote for the working and laboring people, and to choose the representatives of the latter, is one of those sacred rights which cannot be weakened or destroyed without overthrowing the Constitution and unsettling the foundation of society. In their zeal for the Southern rebels—and if the latter have a greater contempt for any one class of their inferiors than for another, it is for the Northern Democracy—they ignore all other questions and sink everything else for the purpose of vindicating the superiority of the Southern rebels over all the other people of the country, white or black, by giving them two votes apiece in the decision of national questions.

Johnson Family Affairs.

The New York Sunday Mercury, a Democratic journal of the Johnson stripe, contains the following gratifying announcement that a troublesome family matter has been settled. No doubt it was a fortunate stroke when the President interfered and prevented an exposure of the corruption and debaucheries of the Executive Mansion at Washington and the Custom House at New York, and no doubt also he has good reason to be "happy" at his success. We would not quote from the Mercury were it not known as a good Democratic authority. Says the Washington correspondent of that paper:

The suit recently commenced by Mrs. Perry, known as the "Washington woman," against Henry A. Smythe, Collector of the Port of New York, to recover a large amount, as her share of Smythe's sale of the General Order Business, for $40,000, has been quietly settled through the intervention of President Johnson, whose friendship for the lady has secured her a small fortune from Government patronage. Smythe positively refused, it is said, to part with even one of his greenbacks for the benefit of Mrs. Perry, and he was, it is further alleged, the possessor of secrets imparted to him by Mr. Johnson which mysteriously secured to him the sinecure he now holds. The Washington woman, however, was inexorable; and, about the time when Smythe was cited to appear before the Supreme Court, the President interfered, and thus prevented a trial, which would have been one of the most remarkable, if not the most scandalous, on record. A verbal message was sent from here to one of the Federal office holders in New York, to raise the amount of subscriptions from the heads of the revenue and other departments, in order to appease Mrs. Perry, and, of course, the needed sum was at once furnished, and the legal proceedings were consequently quashed. The sequel to the case has relieved Collector Smythe from a curious and unenviable dilemma, and has made the President happy.

WHAT JOHNSON THREATENED.—In his last annual message, speaking of "unconstitutional legislation," Johnson said,—or rather Jerry Black said for him:

It is true that cases may occur in which the Executive would be compelled to stand on its rights, and maintain them, regardless of all consequences. If Congress should pass an act which is not only in palpable conflict with the Constitution, but will certainly, if carried out, produce immediate and irreparable injury to the organic structure of the Government, and there be neither judicial remedy for the wrongs it inflicts, nor power in the people to protect themselves without the official aid of their elected defender, if, for instance, the Legislative Department should pass an act even through all the forms of law to abolish a co ordinate department of the Government—in such a case the President must take the high responsibilities of his office, and save the life of the nation at all hazards.

It may be that A. Johnson intended to make good the above threat, but if so, he has "weakened" deplorably. Every correspondent who visits him tells a fearful story of what he is going to do, but he never reaches the point. Apparently he must spend about half his time in discussing with newspaper correspondents the iniquities of Congress and in avowing his own determination at some time or other to do something terrible in the way of asserting his constitutional powers. But happily that dreadful crisis never comes.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 16.

Hancock Ordered to Washington.

CHICAGO, March 16.—Washington specials report that Hancock has been ordered by the President to return immediately to Washington and take command of the Atlantic Division.

The Indian Peace Commissioners—Miscellaneous.

The Indian Peace Commission will meet at Omaha on the 3d of April. The intention is to form parties to visit the Indian settlements. One will go to Fort Laramie and another to New Mexico.

Hundreds of applications are being made for office when Wade becomes President.

Mark Twain sailed in the Henry Chauncey for California.

Washington News.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The Herald's special says it is understood that the expectation of an attack from the Virginia shore has within the past few days taken a more substantial form than was first anticipated. It is known that an order has been issued from the War Department, directing forty army wagons with teams and teamsters to be kept in readiness to move at a moment's notice for the transportation of supplies. Private orders have also been issued to commanders of garrisons about the city to keep their commanding officers and men in quarters.

Since the excitement of Friday last the health of Thad. Stevens has assumed a more serious evidence of decline than that at any other time since his arrival here. It is thought by those intimately acquainted with every phase of his failing condition that it is very doubtful whether he will again be able to leave his room. Several members of Congress who called to-day upon business of an important nature, were requested not to insist on seeing Stevens. The greatest fears are now entertained that Stevens' days of duty have ended.

Flood in New York.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., March 16.—The water at Mohawk Point is thirteen feet above low water mark and is rising rapidly. The south west portion of the city is partially inundated and serious damage is apprehended from the flood.

Don Piatt, of Ohio, says that at the great day when all people are called to judgment, the Democratic party will come up shouting for a "white man's Government," and avowing its solemn determination to "vote the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket."

Greeley says in a letter to Miles O'Reilly "President Johnson, you know, is a traitor to those who elected him. You know that the life of a President who should treat the Democratic as he treated the Republican party, would not be safe for an hour."

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867 (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d 1864. Authorized capital $500 000. Paid up capital $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places of Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS not lost! but has arrived at Portland, and brought to KOHN & FISHEL, the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest style, and of the best material that has been offered in this city for years. The Ladies have not been forgotten. They will find by an inspection of the stock just arrived that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods, the equal of which is not often presented here.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

MARRIED:

In this city, at the residence of Mr. Henry Young, on the afternoon of the 17th inst., by Rev. A. Myers, Mr. John Walters and Miss Margaret E. Hathoway, all of this city.

PATENTS.—Attention given to filing Caveats and applications for Letters Patent. A gentleman at Washington, D. C., of 20 years experience in this business is associated with me and gives this branch his sole attention.

BOUNTY.—Act July 28, 1866 soldiers entering the service between April 19, 1861, and July 19, 1864 for two or three years are entitled to bounty. Widows and Heirs of soldiers are entitled. Sailors and Marines who entered after July 1, 1864, are entitled to $100 for each year of service. Seamen are entitled to three months' pay if they entered the service between Feb. 24, 1864, and July 1, 1865. Colored soldiers are entitled same as white.

PENSION.—Soldiers and Sailors disabled, or who have lost any of their limbs, are entitled to pension. Those who lost limbs are entitled to additional sums from $7 to $17 per month, according to condition. Widows are entitled to $2 per month extra for each child under 16 years of age.

COMMUTATION OF TRAVEL.—California and Nevada Volunteers discharged in Arizona, New Mexico or Utah, and at points distant from the place of enlistment, are entitled to actual cost of transportation, less the amount paid at the time of discharge.

THREE MONTHS' EXTRA PAY.—Volunteer Officers who were in the service March 3, 1865, and were honorably discharged after April 9, 1865, are entitled to three months' pay proper.

LOST HORSES.—Cavalry Soldiers who entered the service prior to June 20, 1864, and owned the horses and equipments they used, are entitled to 40 cents per day for the period of service and to pay for equipments lost and each horse killed in battle or lost without fault of soldier.

COMMUTATION OF RATIONS.—Soldiers, Sailors and Marines who were prisoners of war during the Rebellion are entitled to commutation of rations at cost prices during the period of their imprisonment.

SERVANTS OF ARMY OFFICERS.—The allowance for servants of all officers who were in the service at any time between May 1, 1861, and March 3, 1865, is equal to the pay of a private soldier during the time for each servant allowed and employed. As only $11 per month was allowed for the intervening ten months instead of $13, an thorized every officer is entitled to $50 additional for each servant so employed.

BOUNTY LAND WARRANTS.—All officers and their sailors, marines, [illegible] who were actually engaged in battle in any war between 1790 and 1 March, 1855, are entitled to a Land Warrant of 160 acres. If they have received less than that amount they are entitled to the balance to make 160 acres.

All communications to be noticed should be addressed as above and contain postage stamps for a reply.

DIVIDEND, JAN'Y 1, 1868,
FORTY PER CENT UPON ALL POLICIES THAT have been in force four years, and payable on the anniversaries of the renewals of said policies.

This Company in declaring its Dividends, do so UPON THE PERCENTAGE SYSTEM, thus each insurer, WHETHER HE IS A RICH MAN OR A POOR MAN, A PROMINENT CITIZEN OR AN HUMBLE CITIZEN, SHARES ALIKE.

PREMIUM SYSTEM.
CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE, HOWEVER, TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums, thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash, under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy holder, when he is unable to pay his renewal premium.

REMEMBER
That the "OLD MANHATTAN" never assumes or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them. Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never villifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business. THE MANHATTAN'S oldest insurers are its best advocates. The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!
This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.

From the following table, taken from the New York Insurance Reports of 1867, it will be seen that our percentage of expenses to receipts are very much less than any Companies enumerated below:

Expenses on each $100 of Receipts.

Manhattan Life	13 16
Guardian "	14 39
North America	15 44
Mutual Life	17 09
Continental	20 54
Germania	22 11

This Company insures upon all the most approved plans, AND AT THE SAME RATES CHARGED BY ALL FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES. APPLICANTS, before insuring, would do well to examine our Circulars, which can be had upon application either by mail or otherwise, to

TEETH EXTRACTED
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co.'s Hardware Store.

Extracting Teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas.)

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

The Pain Killer Abroad.

The following correspondence will show something of the estimation in which Perry Davis' Pain Killer is held on the shores of the Mediterranean. It is not surprising that a medicine that receives such testimonials as this from abroad, should find well sustained and increasing appreciation at home.

U. S. CONSULATE, Tunis, Dec. 27, 1865.

To the Proprietors of Davis' Pain Killer, Providence, R. I.—Gentlemen:—The enclosed has just been received from my friend Tulin, late Consul General of Norway and Sweden and of Prussia in this place. No comment is needed. Truly yours, AMOS PERRY.

GENOA, December 16, 1865.

Dear Sir:—Accept thanks for this third supply of Davis' "Pain Killer." This medicine has often relieved me of serious indisposition, and I would not on any account consent to be without it both for myself and my family.

I have recommended it to my late colleagues and friends in Tunis and Genoa, and at my request one of the largest druggists in this city has sent an order to New York to meet the demand in this place.

Yours truly G. A. TULIN,
Ex-Consul Gen'l of Sweden, Norway & Prussia to Tunis.
Hon. Amos Perry, Consul General, Tunis. fe26da&lm

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

BUCHU.

(From Dispensatory of the United States.)

DIOSMA CRENATA - - - - - BUCHU LEAVES.

Properties.—Their odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, their tastes bitterish and analogous to mint.

Medical Properties and Uses.—Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the Urinary Organs.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs—such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostrate and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after Confinement or Labor Pains; Bedwetting in children.

In Affections Peculiar to Females, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in CHLOROSIS OR RETENTION, IRREGULARITY, PAINFULNESS OR SUPPRESSION OF CUSTOMARY EVACUATIONS, ULCERATED OR SCHIRROUS STATE OF THE UTERUS, LEUCORRHEA OR WHITES.

Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.—This medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick Dust Deposit, and Mucus or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled or Delicate Constitutions, of both Sexes, attended with the following symptoms:—Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, &c.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

Is Diuretic and Blood-Purifying, and Cures all Diseases Caused by Habits of Dissipation, Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, &c., superceding Copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleets of long standing, and Syphilitic Affections—In these diseases, used in connection with HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

Each package bears the signature of G. VENARD.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery exciltant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aprient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Sunday in the Country.

Oh b[illegible] day, which rest to labor brings!
A Sabbath's calm upon the hamlet lies,
As if an angel came on noiseless wings,
And o'er it breathed the quiet of the skies.
No more is heard the clatter of the mill
The blacksmith's forge is hushed, the plow is still

The horse in the green paddock seems to kn[ow]
He, too, must rest the brook that steals al[ong]
Doth surely lave its banks with gentler fl[ow]
And birds greet heaven with softer [illegible]
The very flowers look up and seem to say
They'll breathe their sweetest on the Holy Day

Breaking the stillness, hark! a solem[n sound]
It p[illegible] o'er the hamlet like a wave
Swings o'er the woods [illegible] the meadows bound
And dies in echo by the far sea-cave
Chime, chime From yon grey tower the slow winds bear
The church's silvery call to praise and prayer

Now forth from cottage doors, in trim array,
The rustics come old age, with thoughtful mein,
And youth, with sobered spirits, wend their way
To the old church that stands beyond the green
And still the bell its music sprinkles round
A mething of Heaven soft murmuring in that sound

To rich and proud, who meet to worship God
Scorn not the poor man's prayer for He who rears
High mountain tops, shapes daisies of the sod
And simplest cry of lowliest creature hears,
The tha[nks] of the orator arise
Not speedier than poor whispers to the skies

Dear boon to man! O priceless blessing given,
This Sabbath to the weary and oppressed
To hold converse with God and think of Heaven,
'Mid [illegible] hours, O golden Day of rest,
'Mid discords music to the good, the wise,
A g[entle] link between us and the skies

The Hiscock Murder—Mrs Cole's Confession The Cole-Hiscock homicide case was argued in Albany on Saturday, February 1st, and District Attorney Smith read a letter from Mrs Mary B. Cole to her husband confessing her adultery with Hiscock Judge Peckham refused to put the case off until May, and ordered an adjourned Oyer and Terminer to try the [illegible] at an early day. Mrs Cole's confe[ssi]on to her huband was written in ink on a sheet of note paper, and was as follows

"DEAR HUSBAND In answer to your inquiry, I acknowledge that about the Summer of 1864, L. H. Hiscock having frequently called at our house on business, one evening in the [absen]ce of other persons, first by force prevailed upon me to submit and partly succeeded in his efforts. At various times afterwards [illegible] shame and fear of exposure, he obliged me in part to submit, to his caresses, only de[livering myself] from his persecutions at last on your re[turn]. I have refrained from exposure heretofore from fear of consequences

MARY B COLE

Other and modifying words were written with lead pencil on the top of the sheet of paper. Gen. Cole's letter to Mrs Cuyler, written just before the prisoner and his wife left [illegible] for Albany, is as follows:

"[illegible] a [illegible] undoubted evidence that Hiscock has forcibly endeavored to dishonor my wife in my own room, obtaining opportunity [illegible] to do through professed friendship to me He has often since made her the subject of his [illegible] attacks in my absence in the army, [illegible] by [illegible] implicating her somewhat in his [illegible] has ruined her peace and my own God [help] my help, and I ask not vengeance, but he shall not abase himself to her and to [me] and buy his miserable life of me I hold [her] not [wholly] innocent, for she could [have] told of it. What fear of him? He is [illegible] of outrageous treatment and persecution of her, for which he shall make ample [amends] to her and to me. Mary, I know all [the circumsta]nces fully, and it is as I tell you, [I] do not [blame] Mrs. Cole unjustly, if you [know] anything about it.

Your affectionate cousin,

GEO W. COLE"

[Among] the affidavits which were read in [court] were those of General Cole, Senator [illegible] of California; W. H. Hadley, prison[illegible]; H. W. Brown, David Cole, N [illegible], Lyman Clary, John L. Curley and [illegible]. They relate to the testimony which [is] expected to be adduced from Mrs Cuyler, Mrs. Olive B. Cole, the Senator's wife, [illegible] Anderson, Dr. W. H Wheeler and Dr. W. H. Palmer, all of whom, it is claimed, [are] [illegible] from the county or State, [or confined] to bed by severe illness.—New York Tribune, Feb. 3d.

[ILLEGIBLE] CYPHERING IN THE LEGISLATURE.—The [majori]ty of the California Legislature is Democratic. In the Senate, the Republicans have [a majori]ty of two we believe, on a full vote. The [illegible] standing thing, [illegible] seemingly, at early candle[light] [illegible] which they operate as a laboratory [illegible] Man's Governme[nt]. Here the little [illegible] prop [illegible] and brayed into the [illegible] in the form of reso[lutions] [illegible] Legislature. They get things into [illegible] and watch the chance to get a resolu[tion] [illegible] two Republicans [illegible] putting it through [illegible] their own it [illegible]

[illegible] national policy, vir[illegible] that the war was only a joke and ever [illegible] State, as well as North; and Con[gress] [illegible] fool of herself legislat[ing] [illegible] and whereas, resolved, [illegible] immediately to [illegible] That is [illegible] of it. And, when a Repub[lican] [leaves] the Senate to take a drink, if [illegible] Democrat out with him it [illegible] is, a drink 'sclus[ive] [illegible] to take a drink with him, [illegible] goes out [illegible] a man," the Dems have it, and up jumps [illegible] from Marin Posey, and offers the [illegible] telegraph to the President; and the [illegible] is moved, and the only thing to [illegible] is for "those opposed" to get up and [go] into the street, like night-shirted San Fran[ciscans] [illegible] by a little earthquake or so—to [illegible] without a quorum.

[This] sort of thing keeps the honorables lively [no] time to swap horses. A couple of patriotic [illegible] dare not venture to set their heels [illegible] and play with their tally lists a [illegible] but what some rampageous son [illegible] gets up and offers a printed copy of [illegible] to telegraph the President the opin[ion] [of] the Democratic laboratory on the affairs of [illegible] ding the Freedmen's Bureau and the [illegible] R relations. It is annoying. It [is] as provoking as some of the devices invent[ed] by Eddington & Co. in San Francisco to disturb the slumbers of night-policemen.—Virginia Enterprise.

GRANT AND MCCLELLAN.—The New York Nation, in an article entitled "The Soldier," [says] that "the l[ess]on of Grant's life is that [illegible] we are placed, we are doing our [illegible] political work when we are [doing] the [duty] nearest at hand, and to which we have been specially assigned; that there is [illegible] of the country as he who [illegible] fixed on what he [illegible] his business." Grant's real [illegible] is been, according to the Nation, in [illegible] being a soldier, "he tried to be the [illegible] kind of a soldier simply, and not a mon[grel] politician, with newspapers, documents, and drafts of speeches sticking out of the pockets of a uniform coat." In illustrating the temptations which the American soldier has to resist in sticking to his proper business and refusing to meddle with politics, the writer delivers a terrible thrust at McClellan, who, when he found himself driven back on Harrison's Landing, with his army perishing by inches and the Nation looking on in agony, "retired to his tent, and wrote out for Mr Lincoln's edification, his 'views on the state of the country,' old 'views' too, with which he had probably been crammed a month previously by New York politicians" San Francisco Times.

WELL PUT.—A whole brood of financial fallacies is scattered by this short paragraph from the New York Nation

"If the great want of the time be more greenbacks, and if the more there are issued the better off we shall be, it is hard to see why [on earth] need be so much afraid of the Southern ers claiming compensation for their slaves and for other damage suffered during the war What harm could possibly result from issuing enough paper money, when once the printing press is in motion, to satisfy them? It would either revive industry at the South, or, better still, make industry unnecessary and would diffuse contentment through a great many regions which are now the seats of strife and heartburning Is it worthy of practical men to keep the South impoverished merely by way of vengeance, when one wagonload of engraved paper would make its people happy and prosperous?

State dinners in Vienna must be a little bor[ing]. A r[ecent] one lasted twelve hours, and consisted of twenty-nine courses and fifty different sorts of wine.

Neatly Caught.

HOW A FLIRTING HUSBAND WAS CORNERED.

[From the Marquette Plaindealer]

Last summer an individual registered as H Walton Jarvis took passage on the steamer Meteor, at Detroit, for a trip to the Marquette iron district for the purpose, as he informed his better half, of "seeing after a recently purchased claim there " His wife was very anxious to accompany him to the far famed Lake Superior region, but he convinced her, to his own satisfaction, of the absurdity of such a journey on her part, unable as he would be to bestow those little attentions which she would look for and expect The lady, however, was not convinced of the impropriety of such a journey, as much as he thought she was little events transpiring before the day of departure arrived confirmed her in the determination to take the trip incognito, and enjoy the scenery of Lake Superior "all alone by herself" The boat started on advertised time, with H Walton J as one of the two hundred passengers ladies and gentlemen The temporary relaxation from the cares and troubles of the business world, exerted a peculiar influence on H. Walton,—he was a boy again The boat had not sailed half way over the waters of Lake Huron when a very fascinating young lady, also a passenger from Detroit, was heard to pronounce H W J "a real splendid fellow," and was sorry she had not known him before "That he should reside in Detroit so long and not be acquainted, it was really provoking!" By the time the boat had reached Marquette, their acquaintance had ripened into an intimacy that had the appearance of a life time's growth—probably resulting from the fact that the fact that the fascinating young lady was traveling alone At Marquette they put up at the same hotel and enjoyed each other's society Mrs Jarvis followed her truant lord on the next boat having engaged a brother from Boston, whom she had not seen for many years and who arrived just in the nick of time, to accompany her Jarvis and his female friend enjoying themselves at Marquette walked arm in arm to the dock to see the steamer come in, unconscious that retribution was pursuing him in the shape of an injured help meet. Among the crowd that thronged the dock, H Walton and friend failed to recognize Mrs H Walton and brother. After awaiting the departure of the throng, the two promenaders resumed their walk hotel ward, quietly humming a love ditty, in the rendering of which they were unconscious of another two following immediately in their rear The tender and endearing epithets which the lovers applied to each other were overheard by the irate wife and her brother They quickened their pace and passed the billing and cooing pair Once by, the brother said, loud enough to be heard by the others "Yes, we will have a delightful time, Lettia " Quick to see the point, she replied "You know I always loved you, Harry " H Walton J heard the last remark, he recognized the voice, but turned just a little pale Other remarks of the same nature were made, H Walton in the mean time becoming exceedingly troubled at the spectacle before him Arrived at the hotel, he disposed of his charmer and rushed to reproach his wife for her conduct. When he found out that the young man who escorted his wife was her brother he acknowledged himself cornered, and the party adjourned to more private apartments, where an explanation was given by the recreant husband, who did not remain to transact his business in the iron region, but returned to Detroit

LEFFEL'S AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE

WATER  WHEEL

THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c, &c

☞ The following is from the Springfield Republic

Trial of Water Wheels.

Messrs Jonathan Child and John A. McCreight, who are about establishing mills and factories at Harper's Ferry, Va., wished to procure water wheels, and desiring to make a choice of Springfield Wheels, procured a trial between the Leffel Double-Turbine and the Welch and Burns Wheel. The following report of the Committee shows the result of the trial

SPRINGFIELD, O , Oct 11, 1867

This is to certify, that on the 9th and 10th days of October, 1867 I, in company with Mr Staley, Civil Engineer, of Mechanicsburg, carefully measured the amount of water used in the test between the 10 inch Leffel Turbine and the 10 inch Welch & Burns Water wheels made by Bechtle Blakeney & Baker, made at Weimer's mill near West Milton, Miami Co , O The contract requiring the tests to be made with ½ gates and ¾ gates, with the same amount of water for each wheel The amount of grinding was superintended by Mr Charles Morgan who will report the results

The amount of water used in the tests, as measured by myself and Mr Staley, is as follows

	C ft. per min.
At ½ gate the Leffel Wheel used	88 221
" Welch & Burns used	88 221
At ¾ gate the Leffel Wheel used	117 528
" Welch & Burns used	117 528

The grinding was continued for one hour each test

WILLIAM BROWN, Civil Engineer
S S STALEY

Having been chosen by both parties to determine the amount of grain ground by each of the above mentioned wheels the result was as follows

The Leffel Wheel at ½ gate ground	[illegible] lbs
The Welch & Burns at ½ gate ground	50½ lbs
The Leffel Wheel at ¾ gate ground	111½ lbs
The Welch & Burns at ¾ gate ground	102 ½ lbs

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc., Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed in to the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying male[dies] see that they are cured [before] it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days in pretending [illegible] the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places He therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing, with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue, feted breath coughs consumption night sweats mon[omania] and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoe makers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patients letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE.

∗∗ CONSULTATION [IN] ALL CASES, FREE

∗∗ CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

∗∗ IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes, who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so uninviting a subject as the decay of manly vigor through the loss of the vital principle of life, the ignorant may say [illegible] tive, but the desire to point out to those who [distin]guish and decay, the true cause of their [illegible] great an incentive to be forced into [illegible] tended the terrible disease of Seminal W[eakness] one but the practical specialist who devotes his time [illegible] treatment can tell, but its presence can be [illegible] the most inexperienced by noting the following [symp]toms, Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power; nervousness, [illegible] cold feet or hands accompanied by hot head; [illegible] of consumption, short breath; flushings of the face; [aver]sion to society, confusion of the mind; loss of memory nightly emissions; colorless; slight discharges upon least excitement trembling; palpitation of the [heart] regular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the various symptoms enumerated above, pause [illegible] present is the golden moment in which you may health and happiness You may feel [illegible] now, but you have ever practiced the vice of self-abuse even [illegible] [illegible], you have the seeds of weak[ness] [illegible] system, and their [illegible] will, or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength [to the] ground, leaving you a helpless, abject [illegible] disease that declares itself at once. Therein lies [the gre]est danger; for while the patient is being [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or Dig[estive] [illegible] tions, he sinks into a general debility that soon [illegible] to the list of the victims of the terrible disease [of Seminal] Weakness.

See in the bent form and languishing steps, the victim of the fascinating vice; Mark the [illegible] destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and dull [eye].

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory sympt[oms]. [At] first it is easily shaken off, but it grows eventually [a] great disinclination to pursue his regular b[usiness] mind becomes apprehensive, and restless nights days of depression

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim but little hope of [re]covery In a single instant it may wither your hopes and blast your honest aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural impulse as a [re]lief This is an error of the first magnitude, for [illegible] tem, unprepared for the ex[illegible] of the [illegible] denly fails, and he finds himself in a [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope of [illegible] Or if the marriage should result in offspring, they [are] [illegible], distorted, decrepid, and [illegible] This [illegible] ble to both sexes, whether married or [illegible] times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the sym[ptoms] [of this ter]rible complaint, or if your acts have been such as to [illegible] to them, but by instant application [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The D[octor] [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs Cures, when [illegible] time, always guaranteed, and full and p[illegible] stored

The afflicted are assured of every con[illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH [VE]NEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the esta[blishment] of the Institute, the number of cases of Vene[real] [illegible] been treated, show a record unsurpassed by any in the world, and the success that has invariably the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other Delet[erious] Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be not called for, but actually dangerous for it is a [illegible] established medical principle that those [illegible] by entering the blood, ruin the constitution and life

The Doctor effects a cure in recent cases, in a few [illegible] and finds no difficulty in curing those of long [standing] without submitting the patient to such treat[ment] [illegible] draw upon him the slightest suspicion, or [illegible] neglect his business, whether in-doors or [illegible] diet need not be changed Cures always [illegible] no pay required

IMPORTANT TO F[EM]ALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, the [illegible] be Where is there a physician competent to [illegible] relief, and whose respectable standing in society will commend him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively [illegible] requirements are, feels called upon to inter[illegible] calling the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female D[iseases] [illegible] years and is fully qualified to administer to all both medically and surgically not in a superficial [illegible] but in as thorough a manner as years of study and [illegible] both in hospitals and private families—can [illegible] them from the hands of the unqualified, a[illegible] demanding Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father All in affliction can find in him one who and sympathize with and befriend them in [illegible] in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed consultation by letter or otherwise, free. Cures [guaran]teed in all weakness and trouble incidental to the [illegible] Private apartments are provided when desired, wh[ere] [illegible] be had all the advantages of unremitted attention of the Doctor and the most skillful and faithful [illegible]

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Persons either male or female residing in the interior, are often deterred from [visiting] the Doctor because they cannot spare the time, nor incur the expense of a visit to the city To such he [illegible] that a plain statement of the symptoms and follo[w]ing upon the complaint will enable him to prescribe for them so that they can be cured at home None need have any false delicacy about writing, no matter what the nature of their complaint as the communication will be seen by no one except the Doctor and will be treated with the utmost confidence, and either be returned or destroyed
